

NOID newsletter

noidgallery.net / june 2010

Gearing up before the summer break. Summer break? Here's some last minute news:

This Thursday, June 24 - July 4 at NO:ID Gallery: Norbert Tutsek: Shades of the City. Paintings exploring... well shades of the city. Oils and acrylics. Opening night on the 24th with live music from Jo Cello. After-party (free) at The Castle (pub opposite the gallery), featuring live music performance (live breaks & electro) at 8pm: Druid & Pol; First Thursday, 1st July, meet the artist + live music from Jo Cello. Please come down and enjoy.

July 9 in Hamburg, Druckdealer, Marktstr. 102, Karolinenviertel: Square up the Decade. First show abroad of NO:ID artists from the 2009 season. No more submissions please. If you have a work the show, please call Jan on 07939843968. NO:ID goes abroad!

Call for submissions: Total Transparency. Group show at 33-35 Commercial Road starting Thursday 30st September and ending October 10th. To participate, check noidgallery.net.

Plus, we will be curating shows in the bar of the Courtyard Theatre, which we will make into a "cutting edge" exhibition space (in addition to it already being the East Ends most cutting edge theatre space). First Show to be in August, and the proposed theme is "cutting the edge". Like working with scissors? Please submit your concept.

This Friday, The Nunnery Gallery, 181 Bow Road, E3 2SJ: Can you hear it? Curated by Franko B. Private View 6:30-9:30.

This Saturday, Camberwell Green, 1pm-7pm: Chutney Preserves. The Animal fair. Doctor Moreau meets Doctor Dolittle on Animal Farm. Closing event for the Camberwell Arts festival.

Saturday and Sunday, ArtIsLand presents. 491 GALLERY, 491 Grove Green Road, Leytonstone, E11: Paintings, illustrations, photographs, interactive installations and live performances by: John Barry Charman, Odin, Q7, Scabbage, Paranoiaksmile, Gerbos, Responer, Tony Bears, Fede, Arthuro, Reinhard Schleining, Glen Medenez, Francois Boutemy, Simon Hackney. Curated by Kevin Seven.

NO:ID is a network of artists in East London, a gallery, and a question of identity, and is working equally with fine arts, performance arts, and musicians.

To unsubscribe, send mail to noid-unsubscribe@lists.so36.net.

To find information on more activities NO:ID, please visit

<http://noidgallery.net/>